

RASPBERRY ISLAND LIGHTHOUSE REHABILITATION

WHAT'S HAPPENING NOW?

As of August 3, 2006

Raspberry light, "the showplace of the Apostles," is being rehabilitated this 2006 season. Plans to open the lighthouse for tours of the 1920's Keeper's residence will occur in the summer of 2007. The following pictures show you some of the activities taking place this summer.

Here's what's happening now!

Every day the lighthouse is showing its brighter look!

The last section of the roof is near completion.

Chimney caps are in place with lightning rods attached.

Shellacking the woodwork and stairway.

Cutting the new siding.

Painting the siding.

Tower refurbished with new railings, new and painted siding, painted roof and new copper flooring.

The clean, newly roofed and painted appearance of our lighthouse.

KEEP WATCHING FOR THE NEXT UPDATE!
